

Pump/field Technician

Location: Norwood Young America

Job Description

Hands on installation, Service, and support of high-capacity wells and pumping equipment. Diagnose, troubleshoot, and repair using knowledge of pumps, well water systems, various controls, and power tools.

Responsibilities:

- Perform all diagnostics to analyze, troubleshoot, and repair equipment in a timely manner.
- Examine parts for defects such as breakage or excessive wear.
- Pull and set water well pumps
- Clean, lubricate, or adjust parts on equipment or machinery
- Operate repaired equipment to verify the effectiveness of the repair.
- Cut and weld metal to repair broken parts, fabricate new parts, or assemble equipment.
- Understand blueprints and manuals to determine correct installation and operation of machinery.
- Record parts and materials used for proper data collection, documentation, and ordering.
- Perform necessary piping installation and repairs of water lines, flow meters, and valves.
- Maintain effective relationship with customers while providing high quality customer service.
- Utilize safe working practices.
- Assist with the construction of center pivots.

Requirements

- High School Graduate or Equivalent.
- Trade school diploma preferred
- CDL preferred
- Ability to lift up to 75lbs
- Willing to work in various environments as well as long hours and occasional weekday overnight travel.
- Mechanical skills including machining and welding.
- Ability to provide and follow oral and written instructions.